

Working Knowledge Credential

Certified Specialist in Catastrophe Risk (CSCR)

*Recognized
Best Practice Experts*

Knowledge & Skill Mastery Credential

Certified Catastrophe Risk Management Professional (CCRMP)

*Recognized
Subject Matter Experts*

Credential Requirements

General Skills

Ability to demonstrate working knowledge and practical experience

- Property Catastrophe Insurance Fundamentals
- Catastrophe Model Usage
- Common Applications of Catastrophe Model Output
- Ethics & Professionalism

Advanced Skills

Mastery, expert knowledge and experience in advanced applications

- Expertise in Catastrophe Model Capabilities and Limitations
- Portfolio Cat Risk Management
- Capital Allocation for Cat Risk
- Advanced Cat Model Applications
- Post Event Loss Estimation
- New Technical pathway available

For more information, please visit CatRiskCredentials.org

What Value will the Credentials Provide?

- Establishes educational standards for catastrophe risk professionals and the insurance industry
- Provides recognition of knowledge and expertise
- Demonstrates experience in practical applications
- Sets credential-holders apart from others
- Advances both knowledge and practical skills
- Prepares a specialist for additional job responsibilities
- Advances careers based on expert knowledge and skills
- Enhances the practice community among catastrophe risk professionals

About the Sponsoring Organizations

The International Society of Catastrophe Managers (ISCM)

The International Society of Catastrophe Managers is a nonprofit, member organization established to promote Catastrophe Risk Management Professionalism within the insurance industry.

The CAS Institute (iCAS)

The CAS Institute offers specialist credentials for quantitative professionals based on industry educational standards.

For more information, please visit CatRiskCredentials.org